

The Old Rectory
 Springhead Road
 Gravesend DA11 8HN

t: 01474 338726
 f: 020 7117 1837

e: enquiries@paytontate.com
 w: paytontate.com

Family Relationship Chart

 Classes Excluded from Intestate Succession in England & Wales

Entitlement on Intestacy

No surviving spouse

The relatives of the intestate who may benefit on intestacy are as follows:

- Issue (i.e. children or remoter lineal descendants)
 - Parent(s)
 - Brother(s) or Sister(s) of the whole blood or their issue
 - Brother(s) or Sister(s) of the half blood or their issue
 - Grandparent(s)
 - Uncle(s) or Aunt(s) of the whole blood or their issue
 - Uncle(s) or Aunt(s) of the half blood or their issue
 - The Crown, Duchy of Lancaster or Duchy of Cornwall
- A surviving member of any of the above classes excludes all members of classes lower in the table
 - Issue (other than the children of the intestate) only take by representation the share which their parent would have taken had that parent not predeceased the intestate

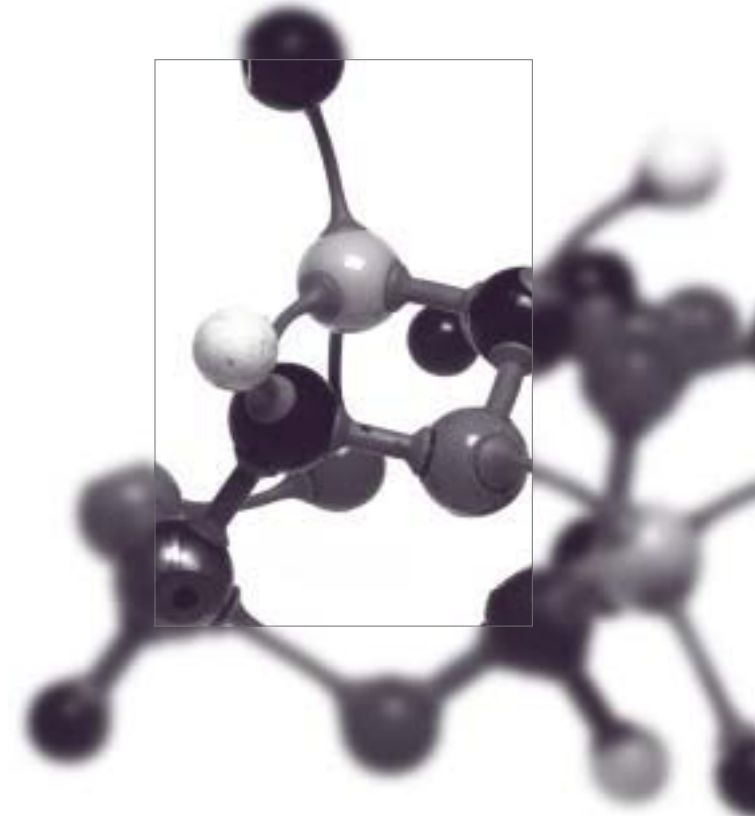

Missing Heirs? Complex Family Trees? Unknown Kin?

Whatever the problem relating to missing or unknown beneficiaries - Payton & Tate have the professional expertise to bring matters to a satisfactory conclusion.

We will review the known facts and advise, without charge. Once instructed to undertake the necessary research, we are often able to work without charge to the estate, or our instructing solicitors.

Our services:

- Location of Missing and Unknown Beneficiaries
- Family Tree Preparation, Documentation and Verification
- Missing Beneficiary Indemnity Insurance Agency
- Genealogical Research Consultation
- Certificate and Record Searches

The Old Rectory
Springhead Road
Gravesend DA11 8HN

t: 01474 338726
f: 020 7117 1837
e: enquiries@paytontate.com
w: paytontate.com

Intestacy & Family Relationship Chart